Art Display at the FWB Library

Fort Walton Beach - The Fort Walton Beach Public Library invites you to enjoy an exhibit of artwork by Brad Greek in the library lobby from now until April 30th. Greek's painting medium is primarily in oils and acrylics on canvas, plein-air landscapes with the palette knife being one of his main subjects. For more information about his collection, you can visit his website, <http://bradgreek.com/>.

The library is located at 185 Miracle Strip Parkway, in downtown Fort Walton Beach at the corner of Eglin Parkway. Parking is on First Street to the North and Ferry Road to the East.
